Dinamita is a free monthly publication distributed in the upstate of South Carolina. Dinamita reaches over 10,000 Readers in the upstate. We are distributing 5,000 copies and we send our digital edition to 5,000 email address we have in our database.

Dinamita is different from other newspapers or publications because its strictly comedy and entertainment. The hispanic community can find different sections like comedy, health, beauty, personal motivation and much more. This is what the hispanic community was expecting, less stress and more laughter.

Dinamita's creator; Camilo Ramirez a graphic designer artist with 20 years experience in graphic design, illustration, web design and publication business is the pillar of this publication.

Thank you for your interest in reaching out to our loyal readership.
